

20th Anniversary – Tomato Festival Sponsorship Commitment Form

The Red Hills Small Farm Alliance is a 501c3 non-profit that supports small farms in the Red Hills Region by providing economic stability for small farm enterprises, professional farmer development, consumer education, and fresh food access. Our largest fundraiser, the annual Tomato Festival will be held Sunday, June 8th, from 1:00 PM - 6:00 PM at Goodwood Museum & Gardens. The expected attendance is between 1,200-1,500 attendees.

We are reaching out to request your consideration of sponsorship for this worthy cause. There are various ways in which you can become a sponsor. The attached document outlines the available sponsorship opportunities, specifically the sponsorship levels and benefits. Additionally, we are seeking In-kind sponsorships, which include donations of goods, services, volunteers, etc. Sponsorships are essential to the success of the Tomato Festival. We kindly ask you to support this important cause by becoming a 20th Anniversary Tomato Festival sponsor.

Kindly inform us of your support for the 20th Anniversary Tomato Festival by completing the information below. Please submit your form and company logo via email to festival@RedHillsSFA.com by April 18, 2025. Upon confirmation and receipt of your check, we will commence promoting your business as part of our event marketing.

Business Name (as you'd like it to appear on marketing):

Address:

Phone:

Email Address:

Sponsorship Level:

In-kind Sponsorship Commitment Details:

If you have questions about sponsorship, please visit the Tomato Festival page at www.RedHillsSFA.com or contact us at festival@RedHillsSFA.com.